Such a thing as recounted in the Br adley memo with three different dates in January did happen. "evin told me about it by phone and, on the chance there might be something to it, " taped it, sent a memo and then the tape. It is only a small part of what Art learned, a very minor one.

However, this seems to be the only bradley thing in the stuff. It is hardly what J has on the Bradley disaster. -t is credible, involving responsible people and entirely incomplete.

It seems to me the purpose of giving this to Fred is to make it seem that Steve's connection with the Bradley case was slight but what he had was responsible. That would be a great deception. It is false.

In any event, in giving this to Fred Jaffe gave him less than nothing.
